

SENATE ACTION ON PEACE PACT AWAITS HUGHES

Secretary of State Holds
Key to the Pacific Situation.

NOW IN BERMUDA

Chinese-Japanese Relations
Hold Foreign Relations Committee.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Maintenance of the status quo with regard to Pacific fortifications and naval bases as provided in the naval limitation treaty created another rumormongering in the senate foreign relations committee today when it resumed consideration of the work of the armament conference.

Senator Johnson, Republican, of California, demanded that the committee be fully informed as to the comparative strength of the American, British and Japanese fortifications before being called upon to endorse the proposal that the United States shall not construct any additional defenses for its Pacific possessions.

Although the president has decided to comply with the request of the senate as embodied in the resolution offered by Senator Hitchcock, of Nebraska, Lodge expressed the opinion that information which Hitchcock desired was given by the explanation of Senator Underwood, Alabama, Democratic leader of the senate and one of the American delegates to the conference.

Washington, Feb. 17.—The advice of Secretary of State Hughes now enroute to Bermuda, will be sought by President Harding before he sends a letter to the senate foreign relations committee explaining how the four-powered Pacific treaty was negotiated by the armament conference, Senator Lodge the committee chairman, stated today following a conference with the president at the White House. It is probable that the president will communicate with the secretary of state by wireless in order that the letter responding to a request of the senate, can be forwarded without delay.

Washington, Feb. 17.—Chinese-Japanese relations and the nine power treaty "relating to principles and policies to be followed in matters concerning China" engaged the senate foreign relations committee today, while the senate waited to hear from President Harding with respect to the four power Pacific treaty.

Until the return of Secretary Hughes from a vacation jaunt to Bermuda, no response is anticipated to the Hitchcock resolution calling upon the president for all valuable information regarding the secret negotiations and private conversations which led up to the making of the Pacific pact.

Hughes holds the key to the situation as he, Baron Admiral Kato and former Premier Arthur J. Balfour as the respective heads of the American, Japanese and British delegations to the armament conference, were personally responsible for the Pacific treaty, according to information given the senate by Senators Lodge and Underwood.

Asked Before Senate.

It is expected that Hughes will be invited to appear before the senate foreign relations committee to relate as much as he may think the senate ought to know about what was said and done by him, Kato and Balfour before and when the Pacific pact was finally evolved and agreed to. He will probably be asked to explain why he and President Harding disagreed as to whether the treaty, as originally drafted included the Japanese homeland.

It is still the plan of Senator Lodge and other Republican leaders to press for ratification of the treaty ahead of the others in the hope that by pursuing the line of the most resistance they will be able to secure more speedily favorable action by the senate on all of the seven treaties and twelve resolutions evolved by the conference, as well as acceptance by it of the separate treaty between the United States and Japan with respect to Yap.

Are Still Confident.

They are still confident of ratification of all of the conference pacts and agreements despite the present mix-up over the Pacific treaty. The Republican "irreconcilables" are bent on attaching a reservation to the latter which will specifically state that the United States shall not employ its man power and other resources to help enforce whatever future decisions are reached by it, Great Britain, France and Japan under the treaty. They hope to have considerable democratic support for such a reservation. It is believed that Senator Lodge and his Republican assistants while regarding such a reservation as unnecessary will not oppose it, if its rejection would threaten to retard ratification of the treaty. They maintain that the chief point at issue is that the treaty accomplished the scrapping of the Anglo-Japanese alliance and dispelled the war clouds which were believed to be gathering in the Pacific when the armament conference was held.

SAYS FRANCE CAN NEVER PAY HER DEBT TO U. S.

French Minister of Devastated Regions Declares America
By Not Accepting French Goods Bars
Way to Settlement.

Baltimore, Md., Feb. 17.—Frank R. Kent, foreign representative of the Baltimore Sun, in a lengthy cablegram under Paris date, published in the Sun, today, states that in an interview he had with Louis Loucheur, former French minister for devastated regions, M. Loucheur declared emphatically that France never can pay her debt. The United States bars French goods and will not accept her currency, M. Loucheur asserts. Mr. Kent's cablegram, in part follows:

"In a vigorous talk I had with him, today, at his home, 9 Rue Hamelin, Louis Loucheur, minister of devastated regions in the Briand cabinet, and now a member of the chamber of deputies, flatly and emphatically declared that France not only cannot, now or in the near future, pay her debt to America, but can never pay it. Further, he asserted that the reduction of her army will not alter in the least her inability to pay."

"M. Loucheur said he had much faith in the proposed Genoa conference. He also stated that France was convinced that Germany was able to pay her indemnity and demands that Germany lay her financial cards on the table. x x x x x

"What are the chief dangers in the way of economic reconstruction over here?" M. Loucheur was asked. "Well," said M. Loucheur, "the chief thing of which I am afraid is that there may be misunderstanding of the elemental facts in Europe by America. You ask us to pay our war debts. We cannot pay. We cannot pay now and we cannot ever pay. No clear headed man, with a real knowledge of financial facts, has the remotest idea that we can ever pay. The only possible way in which we ever could pay is in our goods and you will not take our goods. We cannot pay in our currency. You won't take that. You demand gold and you have all the gold in the world in your own vaults. And now you prepare to erect a tariff wall around your country that will still more completely bar out our goods. How utterly illogical and inconsistent is the American attitude."

"The argument that, if France reduced her army, she could save enough money to pay her debts is neither sound nor sensible. I am not a militarist. I am a firm believer in the reduction of the French army. That reduction will take place. Already in parliament the first steps in this direction have been taken, but I think that if Senator McCormick and others who think with me were Frenchmen they would change their opinion."

JOHN PRYFOGLE, 70, INSTANTLY KILLED WHEN STRUCK BY FAST TRAIN NEAR WILBERFORCE

Hit by P. R. R. West-Bound Train, Thursday Evening,
About Seven O'Clock—Had Been Resident of
Greene County Infirmary at Times

John Pryfogle, 70, of this city, was instantly killed when he was struck by west bound Pennsylvania passenger train No. 235 just east of Wilberforce shortly before seven o'clock, Thursday night.

Pryfogle was walking along the tracks west toward this city when he was struck. He had just stepped off the east bound train No. 20, and stepped over into the path of the west-bound train.

Both legs were cut off below the knees, his face was crushed so that it was almost unrecognizable, and his left arm was broken. He was dead when picked up by trainmen, and taken on the train that caused his death to the Pennsylvania depot here, whence he was taken to the J. H. Whitmer undertaking establishment. The train was in charge of Conductor John Holley, of Cincinnati, and the engineer was Luke Daly, of Cincinnati.

The man is thought to have been born in Indiana, but had spent a great part of his life in this city and in Greene County, being employed as a farm hand many years ago. In recent years he had been an intermittent resident of the Greene County Infirmary but invariably ran away from that institution at the first opportunity, it is said. He escaped from the infirmary about two weeks ago, and had since been making a living as beggar, he could, thriving on charity most of the time.

Among letters in his pockets found by Dr. R. L. Haines, County Coroner, was one written, February 14, 1922 and addressed to a brother, Alexander Pryfogle, at Westville, Ohio, but which had never been sent. The letter said in part: "I thought I would write you a few lines to let you know that I am well at this time. When you get this letter it may be final. How is your wife getting. Are you both well. I will tell you Brother Alexander, times are getting so hard that I can't get along. I would like for you to send me two dollars if you can. I can't get work. I need it bad. Please Brother, send me two dollars. I will send it back to you." Another letter, addressed "My Dear Honey," suggested a proposal of marriage to some unknown to whom he promised a "good living," and "a new dress." A letter was also found in his effects, which had been written by his two daughters, Ida and Rennie, both of whom are inmates of a feeble minded institution at Fort Wayne, Ind. The daughters said in the letter that they knew nothing of the whereabouts of their two brothers, Will and Charles.

Coroner Haines communicated with the superintendent of the Fort Wayne Institution, Thursday night, and was informed that Charles Pryfogle was on the Indianapolis police department. Dr. Haines called the Indianapolis police chief, who said no one by that name was on the department. The coroner returned a verdict of accidental death. His wife died about two years ago at the infirmary. Brief services will probably be held Friday with burial in Woodland cemetery.

WASHINGTON'S ANCESTRAL HOME IN ENGLAND

The ancestral home of George Washington's forebears, known as Sulgrave Manor, in Hants, England, is still standing and is well preserved, having been refurnished and renovated by a group of Americans and British. Many Americans, when in England, visit this famous historic landmark. The house is of brick.

PROSPECTS ARE BRIGHT TOWARD REIGN OF PEACE

Collins Declares British Government "Delivering the Goods"

Dublin, Feb. 17.—Prospects for an Irish settlement are brighter than at any time since before the Ulster border raids, it was declared, today, by Michael Collins, the outstanding figure in the provisional government. Collins said that the British government was co-operating with the Dublin government and giving all assistance in the removal of troubles. "Everything is brighter," said Collins. "Evacuation of British troops from Ireland will be resumed tonight."

"In view of the ever present possibilities for untoward developments it is preferable to withhold official announcement of withdrawal of British troops locally until the soldiers have actually embarked upon shipboard."

"I wish Americans to know, however, that Colonial Secretary Winston Churchill has responded to my telegram in the right spirit. The British government is 'delivering the goods.'"

DECLARE MARTIAL LAW IN SALVADOR

Washington, Feb. 17.—Martial law has been declared in Salvador by President Melendez as a result of a revolt of 54 cadets at the national military academy, according to a dispatch to the state department today from Montgomery Schuyler, the American minister at San Salvador.

The message stated that the cadets attempted to get the cavalry to join in the revolt but failing in this were pursued by a large military force. All transportation and communication was interrupted during the chase.

ESCAPING GAS IS CAUSE OF FATALITY

Wheeling, W. Va., Feb. 17.—The sixth death to occur in Wheeling this winter as a result of escaping gas fumes came with the death last night of James P. Wilkinson, 84, whose wife died Tuesday night from the same cause. All of the victims left their gas heaters burning after retiring, flames being extinguished by fluctuating gas pressure. Two have died from monoxide poisoning, caused by use of gas heaters having no outlet for the fumes.

'PIPE WRENCHES' FAIL TO EFFECT ESCAPE

"What have you in the travelling bag?" said Deputy Sheriff George Birch to Fred Robinette, North West Street, as the latter hopped out of a Dayton and Xenia auto bus in front of the Court House, at five o'clock Thursday evening.

"Pipe wrenches," piped up Robinette. "Let's have a look at them," said the deputy. The bag was opened in the sheriff's office. Robinette pleaded guilty before Magistrate J. E. Jones, Friday morning, to possessing liquor. The gallon of whiskey was confiscated.

GIVEN REPRIEVE

Chicago, Feb. 17.—A reprieve was granted late yesterday by Judge Kichham Scanlon to Harvey Church, under sentence to be hanged today for the murder of two automobile salesmen to obtain an automobile. The plea for the stay of execution was based on the assertion that Church had become insane since his conviction and sentence.

For the past week jailers have forcibly fed Church, since he went on a hunger strike, and he was wheeled into the death cell yesterday in an invalid chair. Church fought viciously as his guards wheeled him down the corridors.

FREIGHTER AGROUND BUT IN NO DANGER

Seattle, Wash., Feb. 17.—The 9,000 ton freighter Selma City, of the Straits of Juan De Euca, near Port Angeles, according to radio advices received at the harbor department today, is aground, but is in no danger. The Admiral Schley, en route from San Francisco to Seattle, is standing by and the coast guard cutter Snookish is en route to the scene. The vessel is not believed to be in danger and it is expected she will be floated at high tide.

DATE OF OPENING GENOA CONFERENCE STILL UNDECIDED

Contradictory Reports Relative To Meeting Are Received.

London, Feb. 17.—Contradictory reports were received here today regarding the date for the opening of the international conference at Genoa. A Daily Mail dispatch from Rome said that the opening of the conference had been postponed until April 15. Later a news dispatch from Rome quoted the Corriere d'Italia as saying that the conference would not be postponed but would open on the original date—March 8.

It was announced at the foreign office at noon that no official notification had been received from Rome regarding postponement of the conference. It was admitted however that the meeting may be delayed, following the preliminary conference of experts.

FAKE TELEGRAMS SENT PRESIDENT

Philadelphia, Feb. 17.—The sending of many fake telegrams and letters to President Harding from Pennsylvania has caused W. Harry Baker, secretary of the Republican state committee, to seek an investigation by the federal district attorney.

Mr. Baker revealed that fraudulent telegrams had been sent to the president purporting to endorse the candidacy of J. C. Overton, head waiter at a West Philadelphia hotel, for appointment as registrar of the U. S. Treasury. The telegrams bore the names of Mrs. George Wharton Pepper, wife of Senator Pepper; Mrs. John Wanamaker III, Mrs. Baker and others. Baker said that none of the persons whose names were signed to the telegrams knew anything about them.

Mrs. Wanamaker said she had received a letter from George S. Christian, secretary to President Harding, in which he acknowledged the receipt of an endorsement from her for Overton and also a joint telegram from her, Mrs. Pepper and Mrs. Charles S. Brown of Philadelphia endorsing the negro.

BACK UP COURTS TO THROTTLE CRIME

Marion, O., Feb. 17.—"Back up your courts with public sentiment if you want to throttle crime," declared Mayor J. J. Thomas, Columbus, addressing Kiwanis club members.

"The trouble with so many is that we are casting carelessly aside the things for which our forefathers fought and died. At the last municipal election in Columbus, thirty eight per cent of the registered vote was cast. There are too many people today who want the law enforced on their neighbors but who do not want to obey it themselves. If the law is not wanted go to the polls and repeal. But until it is repealed obey it."

BILL CREATING FREE STATE OF IRELAND PASSES

House of Commons Passes Act, Friday, After Debate.

ACT IS DEFENDED

Collins Says Many People
In Ireland Suspicious
Of England.

London, Feb. 17.—The Irish free state act, conferring the powers of the Anglo-Irish treaty upon the provisional government at Dublin, was passed by the house of Commons today.

The vote on the second reading, was: For the bill 302; against the bill 60. This vote automatically rejects amendments to the bill which had been proposed.

The passage of the bill was a victory for Premier Lloyd George.

The political foes of the premier had made their supreme fight upon the measure and upon the premier's Irish policy. Austen Chamberlain, government spokesman in commons, had plainly intimated before the vote was taken that if the bill were defeated the Lloyd George cabinet would resign forthwith.

Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, secretary of state for war came forward in defense of the Irish free state act when debate upon that measure was renewed in the house of commons today. The war secretary declared that the British government had taken the proper attitude and he denied that the treaty robbed Ulster province of any rights conveyed under the 1920 partition act (under which the present Ulster government was created).

People living in Ulster counties bordering the free state would be allowed to make their own choice whether they wished to maintain allegiance to Ulster, or allegiance to the free state, Sir Laming said.

It was expected that Premier Lloyd George would address commons in defense of the free state act late in the afternoon.

Michael Collins, outstanding figure in the provisional government at Dublin, telegraphed to Colonel Secretary Winston Churchill that the best way in which the British government could help at the present time was to adhere strictly to the letter and spirit of the Anglo-Irish treaty to convince Ireland that Britain "is really delivering the goods this time."

Many people in Ireland are still suspicious of England's good faith, Collins said.

MORE GIRLS THAN BOYS MARRY EARLY

Washington, Feb. 17.—Sixteen hundred boys and 12,834 girls 15 years of age, in the United States were listed as married in 1920, the census bureau announced in a statement presenting a special analysis of marital statistics. Eighty two boys and 499 girls of the same age were recorded as widowed or divorced.

The analysis revealed a distinct increase during recent years, or since the 1910 census in the percentage of married persons for each year of age from 15 to 34 especially among the younger members of this group. The age group from 35 to 44 inclusive, also showed an increase in the ratio of married persons in the decade, although less pronounced, especially among the women, while the proportion for persons for 45 and older showed a decrease.

In 1920, the figures show 3222 boys of 16 years, or three-tenths of 1 per cent of the total of that age, compared with one tenth of 1 per cent in 1910, were married, while those of 17 years of age married numbered 7699 or eight-tenths of 1 per cent of the total of that age compared with half that proportion 10 years previously.

The statistics showed the number of single persons more than 50 years of age was 1,440,514 including 804,406 men and 636,108 women.

NORTHERN PACIFIC BEFORE SHE TOOK DEATH PLUNGE.

A remarkable scene from one of the rescue ships showing the Northern Pacific afloat at sea with the smoke and flames pouring from her decks and portholes as the big boat began to list. She burned to the water's edge and sank. Of the crew of twenty four twenty were saved at once and four adrift in a long lifeboat were rescued hours later. A forty mile gale fanned the blaze and added to the peril of rescues.

It is suspected that a firebug aboard the vessel probably before she left Brooklyn was responsible for the blaze. The ship which sank off Cape May, N. J., was of 8,256 tons and was one of the fastest American merchantmen.

CONVICTED SLAVER WILL DIE MARCH 1 UNLESS AID COMES

Reprieve Granted to Allow Time For Investigating Case Nearly Up.

Columbus, Feb. 17.—That Harry Bland will die in the electric chair at the penitentiary here March 1, unless clemency is recommended by the trial court is the belief expressed today, by State officials close to Gov. Davis. Bland was convicted of murdering George W. Beagle, an aged man, near Pomeroy.

The governor, on February 1, granted Bland a 30 day reprieve in response to requests for clemency made by Bland's mother and her attorney, Former Attorney General T. S. Hogan, Columbus.

The stay of execution was for the purpose of enabling the governor to probe the mother's claim that Bland did not fire the fatal shot that killed Beagle and that her son did not receive a fair trial because the trial judge was prejudiced, due to alleged enmity against Bland's father.

Information received by the governor recently, it is said indicate that Bland was older than his companions who participated in the robbery of Beagle at the time of the murder, that Bland was leader of the gang and that he was arrogant during his trial.

Gov. Davis, however, has not indicated what his final action in the matter will be.

Washington, Feb. 17.—A soldiers bonus bill such as the republicans can and will accept will be presented to the house within ten days by the ways and means committee, Chairman Fordney announce in the house today.

The committee met today to hear representatives of the American legion but did not discuss methods to raise revenue for the bonus.

REWARD OFFERED FOR CAPTURE OF ALLEGED SLAYER

With a total of $2,000 offered in rewards for the capture of the alleged slayers of Emory McCreight, Wilmington policeman, who was shot to death while on duty early Wednesday morning, Wilmington and Clinton County authorities are still unable to announce a definite clue that might lead to the arrest of the gunman.

The total reward of $2,000 includes $500 offered by the Clinton County Commissioners; $200 offered by the Junior Order and $200 offered by the Daughters of America. The rest of the reward fund was made up by pledges of Wilmington officials and business men.

All business in Wilmington was at a standstill, Friday afternoon, as funeral services were held for the victim of the gunman's bullet. McCreight, was a member of Wilmington's new police department, organized on its advent into the city.

With Henry Adams, he invaded an alley in the rear of the Murphy-Hamham hardware store and accosted two men skulking in the shadow. They were answered by two shots, one of which struck McCreight in the abdomen, causing his death several hours later at the Hale Hospital. The other just grazed the shoulder of Adams slightly injuring him.

A rumor circulated here, Friday, that the gunmen had been captured in Washington C. H., and returned to Wilmington where they were carefully guarded against mob violence in the county jail, was refuted by Wilmington officials.

WILL NOT CONDITION GERMAN LINERS

Washington, Feb. 17.—President Harding and Chairman Lasker of the shipping board, have agreed not to reconsider any more of the former German liners seized by the United States during the war, it was learned at the shipping board today.

The decision was in line with the administration's policy of effecting economies in shipping operations, but will not interfere with the reconditioning of the Leviathan at Newport News.

OUTLAW LEADER CARRIES FIGHT INTO ANTHRACITE FIELDS

Indianapolis, Ind., Feb. 17.—Alexander Howat, outlaw leader of the Kansas rebel miners, today, carried his cause successfully into the anthracite fields when on roll call on the question of supporting the policies of John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, he marshalled sufficient strength in district No. 1 (Wilkes-Barre-Pittston section) to break almost fifty fifty on the final vote cast.

The result came as a distinct shock to Lewis and his supporters, who had claimed the anthracite fields almost as a unit for the administration.

Jealousies among the bituminous coal operators, dissatisfaction in their own ranks and differences among themselves that far outstrip the troubles of the men are the main reasons for failure of the operators and miners to get together to work out a program of peace. John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, told the International News Service today in a frank discussion of the case.

Lewis declared the bituminous mine owners are together on only one play—that of reducing wages, but he asserted they are far apart and badly split as to the wage reduction.

RAWSON SUCCEEDS SENATOR KENYON IN U. S. SENATE

Des Moines, Ia., Feb. 17.—Charles A. Rawson, a manufacturer, was today appointed U. S. Senator to fill the unexpired term of Senator William S. Kenyon, who has resigned to accept a federal judgeship. The appointment of Rawson was made by Governor N. E. Kendall.

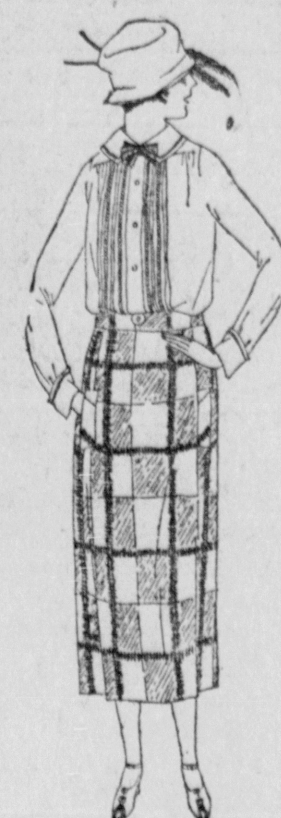

Rawson was for many years chairman of the Republican state committee, and a close personal friend of Senator Kenyon.

The appointment of Rawson puts to rest reports that J. R. Howard, president of the National Farm Bureau Federation, would be appointed to succeed Kenyon. Had the latter event transpired, O. E. Bradford of Xenia, president of the Ohio State Farm Bureau and vice president of the national organization would have automatically become president succeeding Howard. Such a possibility was freely discussed at a meeting of the Ohio state organization held in Columbus, Feb. 1.

SIXTY PER CENT OF CHILDREN UNDERFED ROTARIANS TOLD

Sixty per cent of the children examined in Ross County, are undersized and underfed," was the statement of Dr. Robbins, of Chillicothe, in an address before the members of the Rotary Club, at the regular meeting at the Elk's Club, Friday noon.

The scope of the welfare work in Ross county was dealt with by Dr. Robbins, who showed some interesting photographs of children who were underfed and undernourished, compared with those of children who were normal.

The "Welfare" program, Friday was one of the most interesting of those given by the club, and it entered largely into the work that is gaining the attention of the club members.

Mr. Seward of Chillicothe, was also present at the meeting, and with County Health Commissioner Dr. R. H. Grube and Dr. A. C. Messenger, was a guest of the club. The program was presided over by Dr. Ben R. McClellan.

Superintendent of Schools C. A. Waltz, was appointed to have charge of the next meeting.

FAIL TO LOCATE CAUSE OF BLAST IN CHIO FACTORY

Cleveland, Feb. 17.—No tangible clues had been developed up to noon today by Cleveland police seeking the cause of the fire and explosion that wrecked the plant of the A. Claus Manufacturing Company, 415 Forrest-dale Avenue, shortly after midnight this morning, endangered the lives of many persons living nearby and caused damage estimated at more than $250,000. The fire which followed a series of explosions raged practically unchecked until late in the morning.

The force of the explosion rocked the south side for blocks and the third and last razed the rear wall of the plant. Fire at that time reached the home of George Halvorsen, nearby. Halvorsen, his wife and four children made their escape clad only in their night clothes just before their home became a mass of flames.

The Claus plant is a two story brick structure and the company is engaged in the manufacture of furniture. A man is reported to have been seen running from the plant shortly before the first explosion.

Windows of many houses in the neighborhood were shattered by the force of the terrific blasts. Squads of police quickly formed to prevent possible looting of homes and stores.

"UNCLE JOE" CANNON TO QUIT CONGRESS—WITTY SPEECH.

The weight of nearly eighty-six years, almost forty-five of them passed in Congress, has forced "Uncle Joe" Cannon to plan to retire from public life at the close of this session.

"The grand old man" of the House of Representatives, its oldest member, Speaker for eight years, and one of the most picturesque figures in the body, will not seek re-election.

December 29, when "Uncle Joe" attained the distinction of having served for the longest aggregate period of any one ever elected to the United States Congress, was given almost entirely to honor of the elder statesman. "Uncle Joe" answered with the usual graceful wit, an answer that might well be repeated as he leaves the men who eulogized him that day. He said:

"Mr. Speaker, we have had so many of these wakes that I am beginning to wonder if I am not already realizing the hopes of those who desire to return from the other shore and continue to communicate with their friends who are still participating in the ordinary affairs of this mundane sphere. But it is a compliment that I appreciate from my fellow members of the House, and I thank my personal friends and colleagues for sentiments which I fully reciprocate.

"I realize that it is a rather long time that I have been here, but it has not seemed long, for time never drags in the House, and the realization of the years that have come and gone comes to me only when I look into the faces of my colleagues and note the changes.

"I am reminded that in that year of 1872 my friends, Rainey and Mondell, at the age of twelve, were beginning to figure life in percentages, while Rodenberg, at the age of seven, was winning his way with 'you'd scarce expect one of my age,' and the ambitions of Claude Kitchin and Nick Longworth, at the age of three, were centered about their first pants."

BETTER AND CHEAPER FOOD FOR PRISONERS.

Sheriff Flynn of Bronxville, N. Y., has figured out a new system for economizing in the prison dining room. From now on prisoners are to be fed scientifically on rations carefully prepared with a view to containing the proper number of calories and the right food elements, instead of their being served with a heterogeneous mess ordered with an eye neither to economy nor the health of the consumer.

The sheriff is a former football star of Fordham University. His experience in training gave him the idea of better balanced meals for his wards. He believes that under the proposed regulation of diet their health will be improved, and at the same time he expects to reduce living costs in his department $6,000 a year.

Ordinarily attempts to save money on prison fare result in insufficient food or wretchedly inferior quality. Such economizing is wrong. There can be no such objection to Mr. Flynn's plan, which takes into consideration the welfare of the prisoners themselves.

THE IRISH FLAG.

Ireland, being now by way of becoming a self-governing nation is busy figuring out for itself a system of coinage and postage stamps and a flag. And the flag is not the least of these problems. The question is, whether the Irish flag is to remain blue.

No, gentle reader, that is not an error. In spite of the ingrained belief of the world in general and perhaps of 95 per cent of the Irish themselves, the official Irish flag is not, and never has been green. There is detailed and conclusive testimony to this fact, from London and Dublin; and when those two capitals agree on anything, it must be true. The genuine Irish king appears as a "quartermaster" on the British Royal Standard, consisting of a stringed harp on a background of sky-blue. The Irish themselves have never officially changed that color.

It is all right. The "Emerald Isle" is, indeed, of a wondrous green in its vegetation, but its sky is just as wondrous a blue. One color is intrinsically as good as the other, no doubt. And yet something seems to tell us that when the statesmen at Dublin get through with the matter, that flag will be as green in fact as it has ever been in fancy.

HEALTH EDUCATION.

That education is one essential to the development of public health is emphasized in the Bulletin of the California State Board of Health. A law, a health officer and a placard tacked on the door are not enough to stop a contagious disease. The whole community needs to know something about the cause of the disease and about preventive measures as well as about treatment and cure.

One city health officer maintains that 95 per cent of diphtheria in this country could be prevented if public ignorance could only be changed to knowledge of the protective methods to be used against it.

There are many evidences that education in public health is making steady progress. Local health departments and officials are nearly always to be found on the side of education and prevention. Other welfare agencies and public schools are carrying on the program with a real spirit of co-operation and an amazing amount of ingenuity in popularizing the subject.

Statistics have been presented which show that all this work is bearing fruit in the actual decrease in mortality rates in general and in certain specific diseases which have been the subject of concentrated campaigns.

TODAY'S TALKS

BORROWING TROUBLE

The first thing to hear in mind when you go to borrow trouble is that you have to pay back what you borrow.

And who wants to be paid back in trouble? Every day I live I decide in my own mind that this is a good world I may be wrong in my decision—but in such a case I shall willingly bear the responsibility.

At least this is no world in which to borrow trouble. There is plenty without borrowing, anyway.

There was a song which originated during the World War that I wish might continue to live. It was about wrapping up your troubles in some sort of a bag and just—smiling! If you will try this out and then open up your bag, I will be one to venture the opinion that there will be no troubles there at all—they will have leaked out!

Bear responsibility, face the music, and play the game—but give your working machine a chance to function without borrowing trouble.

Borrowing trouble is much like borrowing money—the more you borrow, the more you DO borrow until you are enmeshed in troubles, every one of which looks like some Gibraltar in size.

David Harum is made to say in Westcott's book of this name, that the reason why a dog has fleas is to keep him from brooding too much on being a dog.

Maybe that is like our having troubles—for we each have plenty of our own—so that we may not brood too much on being better than someone else, and may remember that we are, first and last, human.

But so long as we have troubles, let us not let it be known that we have them! And then they won't be borrowed—or lent.

It was Ella Wheeler Wilcox who once wrote that the earth had to borrow its mirth—but that it had trouble enough of its own.

PLAN NOT APPROVED

Washington, Feb. 17.—Secretary of the Treasury Mellon declared he had NOT approved the plan to give a government guaranty to issues of equipment obligations by railroad companies. He said that reports that he had given such approval were "entirely without foundation" and that "no such plan has in fact been presented to the treasury for consideration."

MRS. ANNA E. HUGHES

Mrs. Anna E. Hughes, 22 West Elm St., Chicago, an artist who enjoys a wide and enviable reputation for skill in china painting, in relation to the facts of her remarkable experience with Tanlac, says:

"I haven't enjoyed such good health or felt so well in every way in years as I do now. Before I took Tanlac I was so run down that half an hour at my work would tire me completely out and I was actually so nervous and weak that at times the brush would fall from my hands and I would have to quit work for the rest of the day. Every night I would lie awake for hours, miserable and nervous.

"My improvement after the first few doses of Tanlac was rapid and constant. I'm happy to say I'm well and strong now and feel better than in twenty years. Tanlac deserves every word of praise I can give it."

THE PACIFIC.

The wide and blue Pacific comes slopping to my door; some seas are most terrific, the way they surge and roar; but this old languid ocean is never in commotion; it seems to have the motion that effort is a bore. Upon its breast no ripple for days may be described; it looks so calm a cripple might swim to t'other side; I hear old salts relating wild tales of skating for days without abating, and feel that they have lied. I've sat and watched the briny for ages, from my coop; it's always still and shiny, and like a sea of soup; unbroken, calm, it glitters, save where some funny critters, emerging from the bitters, emit a fishlike whoop. I've longed to see the billows in wild commotion roll, while I sat 'neath the willows with my long fishing-pole; but, sluggish still and quiet, the sea, as I loaf by it, puts up no startling riot designed to stir the soul. It scarcely even shivers, it stagnates, gray and grim, and I know Kansas rivers that have more pep and vim; with seaweed it is crusted, with seaweed red and rusted, and gulls that look disgusted along its surface skim. A long, long time I've waited to see this ocean wake, and now I know I'm fated to find my hope a fake; and while the famed Atlantic is prone to spasms frantic, and kicks up storms gigantic, this sea jams down the brake.

XENIA HIGH WINS ON FIRST LEG OF 2 DAY TRIP OVER BRADFORD

Coach Jerry L. Katherman's Central High voyagers defeated Bradford High at Bradford Thursday night 29 to 17, after using several substitutes in an attempt to rest the regulars for the big game with Piqua on the latter's floor Friday night.

Bradford is the home town of the local mentor, and his athletes were anxious to distinguish themselves before the coach's friends and relatives. This they did in fine style. The Bradford five is one of the best that school has ever turned out, but the locals had little difficulty in taking the conceit out of them Thursday.

Coach Katherman used his second stringers in the second session. Gagner had a big night, lopping in six baskets during the pastime, while Captain Boxwell ran him a close second with five fielders. The lineup and summary:

Xenia—29 Bradford—17
Gagner L. F. Tuttle
Vannorsdall R. F. Myers
Boxwell (c) C. Clary
Yeakley L. G. Hill
Douthett R. G. Sillman
Substitutions: Xenia—D. Currie for Douthett; Reutinger for Yeakley; Yeakley for Vannorsdall; Vannorsdall for Gagner; A. Currie for Yeakley; Bradford—Driver for Hill. Field goals: Gagner 6, Vannorsdall 2, Boxwell 5, Yeakley 1, Myers 4, Driver 3. Foul goals: Gagner 0 out of 3; Yeakley 1 out of 2; Tuttle, 0 out of 1; Myers 0 out of 4; Driver 2 out of 5. Referee Pugh, Piqua, Y. M. C. A.

JOHN ROAN POST WINS ANOTHER ONE

Through a misunderstanding as to whether the scheduled game between the John Roan Post, American Legion five and the Wilmington Monarchs Thursday night was to be played, many fans missed the opportunity of seeing the Legion five in its finest trim, defeat the Monarchs by the score of 47 to 7.

The Legion team, having imbibed considerable technique from the Chicago Defenders quintette here several weeks ago, finished the game with only three men on the floor, a feat performed only by professionals when meeting amateur players. The score was 41 to 7 when Bob Watkins and Red Anderson marched off the floor, leaving Chick Smith, Mat Hill and Carl Lewis to hold the visitors in check. During the last four minutes the visitors did not score a point while the three local players ran up six points.

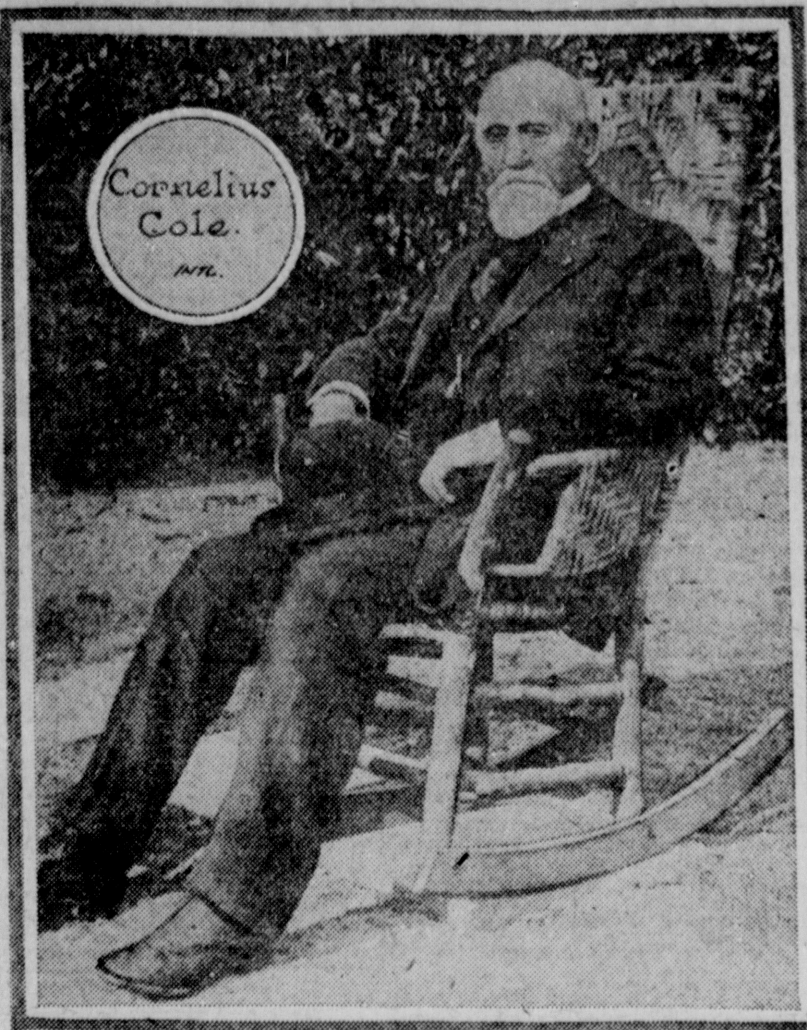

The Legion team will play its next game Monday at the Rink, meeting the Cincinnati Y. M. C. A. five, champions of Ohio last year, and so far undefeated this season. The lineup and summary:

Legion—47 Monarchs—7
Anderson L. F. Richardson
Lewis R. F. Hamilton
Harris C. Stewart
Dickerson L. G. Hart
Watkins R. G. Curtis
Substitutions: Smith for Harris, Hill for Dickerson. Field goals: Anderson 12, Lewis 7, Watkins 1, Hill 1, Richardson 1, Stewart 1. Foul goals: Anderson 3, Hart 2, Richardson 1. Referee: Rachford.

TAX DUPLICATE DECREASES

Bucyrus, Feb. 17.—While the grand tax duplicate of the state increased during the past year, that of Crawford county decreased. County Auditor A. C. Flickinger has announced that the 1921 tax valuation of this county is $72,364,960, compared with $77,482,280 in 1920.

FARMERS MEET TO MEDIATE TENANCY

Columbus, Feb. 17.—Although an open forum on farm tenancy, attended early this month by 50 Champaign County landlords and renters, failed to adopt a model lease to govern, local tenant problems, rural economists of the Ohio State University feel that the idea of man-to-man mediation between landlord and tenant groups is good, and that results have already appeared. It is planned to hold similar conferences in other parts of Ohio.

The initial conference and a follow-up were held at the call of Frank Sandhamer, county agricultural agent, at the farm bureau office in Urbana. Of the 50 who came, about half were landlords and half renters. It was the first such gathering in Ohio.

R. F. Taber, farm management demonstrator of the University, gave out a card of nine topics, questions to lead directions to discussion. The questions covered all points on which land owners and cash or share tenants most frequently squabble.

Discussion was friendly and constructive. Mr. Taber reports. A joint committee was appointed to frame a local lease adapted to all conditions, and such a lease framed, a second meeting was held to ratify it, Feb. 4.

Although the lease failed of unanimous adoption, a code of general principles of fair play in tenancy was agreed upon. "There can be no question that a far better understanding between owners and renters came out of their conference and that such work is worth continuing," Mr. Taber says.

The Answer Is—Men, Materials, Machinery

Men

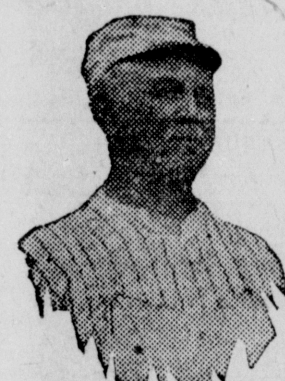

It was not by luck nor by chance that The Green & Green Company grew from a small one-oven plant to the big modernly equipped bakery in which Edgemont Crackers are made.

But by the close cooperation of department heads supported by experienced men and women, who, with the skill of long practice, turn "Edgemont" quality materials into "Edgemont" Quality Crackers with the aid of most modern machinery.

Albert Bleile, our general superintendent, has grown up with our business. He has had 25 years experience in the manufacture of Crackers and is a recognized authority among the Cracker bakers of this Country.

ALBERT BLEILE
Master of Baking

FRED DIEFENBACH
Master of Milling

Bakers produce not only superior—but more uniform Crackers.

These men supervise an organization you can always depend on to make for you "Edgemont Crackers" of high quality and of a tastefulness that cannot be found in baked goods less carefully made.

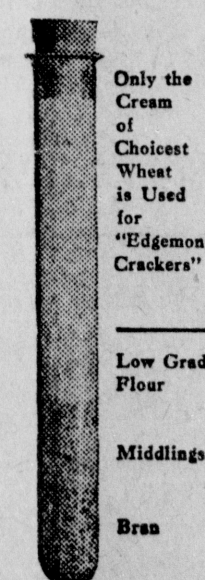

Materials

Crackers to be good must be made of good materials, flour being the principal material used.

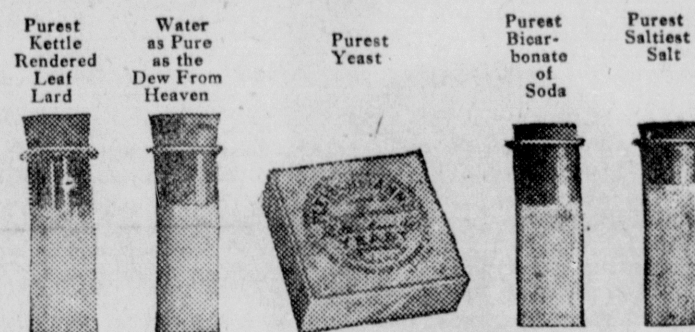

In order to control a uniformly high-grade flour we installed our own milling plant.

We grind only the choicest wheat in the Great Miami Valley—the heart of the world's best winter-wheat belt.

Cracker Flour at its best is fluffy and fragrant with a delightful sweet-wheat aroma. "Edgemont" flour never loses fluffiness or fragrance—giving "Edgemonts" their sweet-wheat flavor.

our own equipment—raised with purest yeast—insured uniform goodness by a bit of purest bicarbonate of soda—sprinkled with purest salt to give zest to the eating—baked to a turn—then toasted a rich golden brown.

Machinery

BAKING

Our machinery and appliances are the most modern the market affords. Many devices are our own inventions, reducing laborious hand operations to the minimum.

To sum it all up Edgemont Crackers are DIFFERENT and SO GOOD, because The Green & Green Co. insists they shall be so. Employing superior bakers, using best materials, operating most modern machinery, and, with a fleet of 23 Green Motor Trucks delivering "Edgemonts" oven-fresh to grocers—

So that you can serve Edgemont Crackers as bread—bread in its purest and least expensive form.

All independent grocers can supply you. Always sold in GREEN tins or GREEN packages.

TRACTION LINE TO BE DISCONTINUED UNLESS AID FOUND

Springfield, Feb. 17.—The S. and W. Traction line, which operates between Springfield and South Charleston, will be discontinued and the property sold for junk, unless a purchaser can be found or some other means devised for keeping the road in operation, according to the announcement of Floyd Baker, operator and part owner of the line, Thursday. The date of the action has not been set.

Simultaneous with the announcement came the word that Springfield and South Charleston business men were making plans to rescue the line, from possible abandonment and keep it in operation.

The plans for the abandonment of the line is the result of the loss of money for several years, and the inability of its owners to keep it going. The road which is 15 miles long and boasts one car is owned by Mrs. G. W. Baker and her six children, as the heirs of G. W. Baker, who bought the property at receiver's sale in 1908. With the exception of the D. T. & I. railroad which operates one passenger train each way daily, it is the only common carrier between Springfield and South Charleston residents. The village of Pichin would be cut off altogether from rail connection, with the rest of the county.

McCLELLAN HOSPITAL FLAG TO HOSPITAL OPENED THURSDAY

The McClellan Hospital had been moved to its new building on the corner of the street following the disaster of Thursday morning when the old building was destroyed. The new building was opened on Thursday morning with a flag from the American Legion to Dr. B. R. McClellan, hospital head, who is chairman of the state hospital committee of the Legion. The Legionnaires enlisted the aid of Superintendent Garver of the Ohio Soldiers' & Sailors' Orphans' Home, who consented to the Home Cadet band taking part in the services and in charge of Major Edgar, who opened the ceremonies by singing the "Call to Colors." Commander Jacob Colp, of Footy, had charge of the services in the Home Cadet band. Adjutant Carl Ervin also took part, and he made the speech of presentation to Dr. McClellan. The new building was then flung to the breeze on a new flag pole at the hospital and McClellan pronounced benediction. The playing of "The Star Spangled Banner" by the band, concluded the ceremonies.

CITY OF XENIA IS NAMED DEFENDANT IN DAMAGE SUIT

The City of Xenia, Charles Simms, David Mangan and Fred Jones, city policemen, and The American Guaranty Company are named defendants in a suit, styled The State of Ohio ex rel Caroline Pressinger, asking $10,000 and filed in common pleas court, Thursday afternoon.

The petition charges the policeman with violently, forcibly and unlawfully entering Mrs. Pressinger's home at 330 East Main Street, at 3:30 o'clock Sunday morning, with searching the premises throughout, and with using profane and abusive language.

Mrs. Pressinger states in her petition that the three policemen were dressed in civilian clothes, and made no effort to arouse her, to ask permission to enter, but violently entered her bona fide residence and dwelling without any search warrant having been issued therefor. The petitioner states that she was not violating any law of the State of the United States but was residing peaceably and quietly in her home, and was asleep at the time she alleges the officers entered by force. The petition states that David Mangan is assistant chief, and that Charles Simms and Fred Jones were acting under his advice and direction.

Mrs. Pressinger states that she is of a nervous disposition, and was greatly excited and agitated by reason of the entrance of the officers, and since has been unable to sleep, work or perform her usual and necessary household duties, and that the reports circulated concerning the affair were injurious to her reputation as a peaceable and law abiding citizen, damaging her in the sum of $10,000. The three policemen are each under bond for $1,000 with The American Guaranty Company.

Although defendants named in the action had not filed an answer to the petition Friday, it was learned in an interview with police, that the officers entered the Pressinger home to search the room of Jon Anderson, roomer at the house, who was fined $500 and costs on a charge of possessing liquor by Judge E. D. Smith in police court, Monday morning.

Anderson was arrested at the Rink, Saturday night, by Chief of Police M. E. Graham, and police say that whiskey was found in his possession. Later assistant Chief David Mangan received a tip, that Anderson, who was locked up at the time, had a gallon of whiskey in his room at Mrs. Pressinger's house. Police say they obtained Anderson's key, and used it to enter the house and search the room.

They claimed that, when Mrs. Pressinger was aroused, they explained their purpose in the house, but that she berated them for entering her residence. The police continued the search, they say, and claim they found a quart of corn whiskey in Anderson's room before they left. The whiskey was used in evidence in Anderson's conviction, Monday, but no charge was placed against Mrs. Pressinger and no attempt was made to bring her into the case.

SAYS CROPS HAVE NOT BEEN REDUCED

Columbus, Feb. 17.—"It's not farmers who have cut production," say rural economists of the Ohio State University, ending their latest supply survey of American markets. "Unlike other producers of raw materials, the farmer finds it difficult to control output, even if he wants to."

J. I. Falconer, head of the Department of Rural Economics, makes this report. He shows that during 1921 farm crop production was 99 percent normal. During the same year, soft coal production fell to 67 per cent normal, and the output of copper to 18 per cent.

Professor Falconer remarks: "Industries can readily reduce output. The farmer, however, can do little to adjust the size of his crop after it is planted. After that, results depend in great measure upon whims of the weather."

Cedarville College Notes

The people of Cedarville will have the opportunity of listening to Mr. Hamilton Holt, the former editor of the Independent, Sunday evening in the auditorium of the Methodist Church.

The Ranger's Club, consisting of a group of Cedarville College students has been organized in Cedarville College, for the purpose of increasing the college enrollment next fall. The club will give a program consisting of readings, music speeches and a short play. They intend to visit the neighboring schools to present this program during the remainder of the semester. Both the boys and the girls basket ball teams journey away from home this week. The boys will take on the fast Washington C. H. Y. M. C. A. team while the girls play the Washington Y. W. C. A. team. In a previous game the Cedarville boys were nosed out in the last few minutes, after a hard fought game, and are out to avenge that defeat. The girls had an easy time defeating the Washington girls before, and are confident that they can turn the trick again.

The past week has brought two new students, Mr. Walter Craze from Miami University and Mr. Windsor E. Brusman from Wittenberg College. We are glad to welcome them into our midst and hope they will find in "old C. C." a real college home.

HOPE IS HELD FOR GIRL'S RECOVERY

Although attending physicians at that her condition is critical, it is held for the recovery of Mrs. Mills, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Mills, of the Burlington two miles out of Xenia, who was burned when her dress caught from an open grate, Thursday morning.

The girl was seriously burned on her entire body, when her dress caught fire, while she was dusting the mantle over the grate. W. M. Hartinger, of Spring Valley is attending the girl.

FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW WHEN YOU BUY A CAR

The question of greatest importance is not what you will be allowed for your old car but the price you pay for the new car and the value received.

You are money out if allowed $100 more for your old car, yet have to pay a $150 higher list price for a new car when the comparative value is not there.

A purchaser's loss is only postponed when trading allowances are made above a used car's real value. The deal that may appear most satisfactory to you in the beginning may prove to be the most expensive in the end.

No one receives anything gratuitously in this world—don't be misled by false allowances.

We believe that any sales policy which encourages the giving of fictitious values for used cars is an injustice to the public. We wish to establish definitely the fact that the Buick Motor Company has never followed this policy—rather has always based the price of its product upon actual costs and when costs came down correspondingly reduced the prices of its cars to the public without any camouflage whatsoever.

STUDENTS PREPARE WEDDING CAKE FOR PRINCESS MARY

Here are students at the National Baking School in London, who offered to make the wedding cake for Princess Mary, who accepted. The students are busily engaged in preparing the ingredients for the cake, a gift from the National Association of Master Bakers, I. is but one of the many indications of the warm-hearted response by people in all walks of life who are sending their gifts to the Princess, who soon will marry Viscount Lascelles.

fects resulted from the sudden change. Hospital officials were still unable to place an estimate on the property loss entailed at the Thursday fire, Friday afternoon. Dr. B. R. McClellan and his sons, Dr. R. R. McClellan and S. N. McClellan, have been kept busy with details regarding the sudden move of the hospital to the new building. A hasty survey made, Thursday night, in the offices of the old hospital, showed that equipment, supplies and utensils kept on that floor, were considerably damaged by water but S. N. McClellan, business manager of the hospital, said, Friday afternoon, that he was still unable to even roughly estimate the extent of the damage.

Firemen inspected the building, in charge of Fire Captain Mahanna Thursday night, to see that there were no smoldering embers that might result in the fire breaking out anew. Their inspection proved that there was no possibility of another blaze, in order to prevent the possibility of fire cracked glass or burned timber falling from the building and striking pedestrians, the sidewalk around the hospital was roped off, and red lanterns hung on the ropes, Thursday night.

An after-the-fire survey showed that practically the entire second floor of the building was gutted, there was very little of the roof left intact, windows were smashed out and the second floor was covered with ice.

WHEAT DAMAGED ABOUT 10 PER CENT; TO RAISE CHICKENS

The condition of growing wheat in Ohio at this time is estimated to be 90 per cent and showing some thing like 10 percent damage from winter killing according to reports received by C. J. West, State-Federal Agricultural Satisfician. The late sown wheat seems to have suffered the most damage. A fair covering of snow has protected the wheat in the northern part of the state.

Egg production appears to be somewhat less than usual at this time of year and farmers are reported to be showing more than usual interest in poultry.

About half the reports received indicate that farmers intend to raise more chickens this year, and this is especially true in the counties containing the larger towns and cities. An average of a number of flocks at different points over the State gives the production of eggs at from 20 to 30 percent of the number of hens.

TWO SALMON SUPPERS

The following supper menus would be equally appropriate for luncheons:

Fried Salmon Croquettes
Quick Biscuit
Cocoa
Stewed Prunes
Grandma's "Cream Cakes"
Fried Salmon Croquettes: Pick over a one pound can of salmon and add to it 1 beaten egg and 2 crushed crackers. Make this mixture into small cakes then beat an extra egg (for dipping) and roll an extra cracker. Dip the little salmon cakes first in the raw egg, then in the rolled cracker, and fry in half butter and half lard.

Grandma's Cream Cakes: Boil together 1 cup of hot water and 1 cup of butter and while boiling stir in 1 cup of dry flour; stir rapidly until the ingredients are a smooth paste. Take from the range and let cool; when milk warm stir into it 3 un-beaten eggs and beat until once more a smooth paste. Now butter a large pan, heat it, drop the mixture on it, allowing 1 tablespoon of batter to a cake. This batter makes ten cakes.

Bake 25 minutes in a hot oven—as rapidly as possible without burning the cakes. When done, make a small crack in the side of each cake and put in the following filling:
Cream for filling: Beat together 1 egg, 1-2 cup of sugar and 1 tablespoon of flour. Stir this mixture into 1 pint of hot milk, and flavor to taste.

Escalloped Salmon
Corn Muffins
Tea
Chocolate Gingerbread
Escalloped Salmon: You will need 1-2 cups of canned salmon and 2 cups of bread crumbs. Put a layer of the fish on the bottom of a baking dish, seasoning with salt and pepper; add a layer of bread crumbs, then another of the fish—alternating these two layers till the ingredients are used up. Then moisten with butter, and cover; bake 15 minutes in a hot oven, remove cover, and brown. Serve hot.

Chocolate Gingerbread: Mix together 1 cup of molasses, 1-2 cup of sour milk, 1 teaspoon ground ginger, 1 teaspoon ground cinnamon, 1-2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon soda dissolved in 1 teaspoon cold water, 2 tablespoons melted butter, 2 cups bread flour sifted, and 2 ounces of unsweetened chocolate melted with 1 extra tablespoon of butter. Stir well and turn into muffin pans. Bake 20 minutes in a moderate oven.

Or try this unusual gingerbread recipe:
Fairy Gingerbread: Cream 1-2 cup of butter, add 1 cup of light brown sugar gradually, then add 1-2 cup of sweet milk slowly. Sift together not quite two full cups (about 1 7-8 cups) of bread flour and 2 teaspoon of ground ginger and combine the two mixtures. Spread this batter very thinly, with a broad knife, on a buttered inverted dripping pan—that is, on the bottom of the pan—and bake about 20 minutes in a moderate oven, turning the pan if necessary, during baking, so that all parts may be evenly baked. Cut in squares before removing from pan.

HELEN HUNTER'S HUSBAND

BY JANE PHELPS

HELEN SHOWS JACK HER ACCOUNT BOOK

"Well, Jack Hunter! I thought you were so tired! Why couldn't you sit with us instead of moping in here?" Helen had spoken from the threshold, surprised to see him reading.
"I don't like Barnes!"
"The idea! He is charming! He tried hard to get you tonight. I should think you would be ashamed of yourself! I suppose you are cross because I went to dinner with him instead of eating alone while you were out having a good time. You may as well understand, Jack Hunter," she warned to her subject, "that whenever you stay out I shall always go out, and I shan't go alone!"
"I don't think it is decent for a married woman to spend the entire evening with a bachelor, and—"
"I don't think it proper for a married man to leave his wife alone an entire evening while he is having a good time."
"Well, don't let's quarrel," Jack said in a tired voice.
"I'm sure I don't want to—oh that!"

AWARDED GOLD MEDAL

Oberlin, Feb. 17.—W. D. Farman, junior at Oberlin College and member of the football team, was awarded a gold medal for "life saving under perilous conditions." The award is made through the National Boy Scouts Court, New York. Farman, with a companion, rescued three of four persons when a row boat capsized during a sudden squall on Diamond Lake, Wash., last August.

was the loveliest place Mr. Barnes took me to. And the nicest dinner! I did enjoy it. Heedless as usual.

"Let's go to sleep."
"Cross patch, draw the latch," Helen chanted, "I'm not sleepy, I feel like talking."
"What about?"
"Oh, almost everything! Tell me first how many policies did you write today. I'm going to ask you that every night, and keep books so you can't cheat me. How many?"
"None!" shortly.
"Cross your heart! You know I can't trust you because once that I know of you didn't play fair. How do I know that you won't try it again?"
"You don't!"
"Stop being horrid. And—Jack—"

"Yes?" sleepily.
"I must have money. I lost at the club—not much, but I lost to Mrs. Langdon, and after the way you made love to her at her party the other night it would be disgraceful to keep her waiting." Helen suppressed a giggle. "Oh, you were too funny!"
"Was I?" indignation now in his voice. "Funny, was he?"
"Yes, oh so funny!" She laughed outright this time. At first you didn't want to; then you wanted to a little, then you did! And it scared you." She went off in a peal of laughter, while Jack angry, refused to speak again.

ADD AMENDMENT TO CLUB CONSTITUTION

An amendment to the club constitution was the chief matter taken up by the members of the Xenia Business and Professional Women's Club, at a business session held at the Chamber of Commerce, Thursday night.

The new clause of the constitution, concerns provision for membership into the club, and requires that "each applicant be actively engaged in some business or profession at the time of their entrance as a club member." The matter called for an open discussion by the members, and was decided upon by unanimous vote.

Miss Faye Ledbetter presided at the meeting, in the absence of the president, Miss Allegra Hawes. The reports of the officers, and other routine business engaged the attention of the members.

In the morning she brought out a little blank book.

"I'm going to put down every single policy you write, and the commissions you receive in this little book. Then you just fib to me and see what will happen."

Helen did not say this, neither did she say other disagreeable sounding things in a disagreeable manner. Now she was smiling her voice almost laughing, yet Jack knew she meant it—every word.

"You'd better keep an account of your expenses, and your house money. It would be more to the point! I can keep my own books," Jack angrily restored. The sight of that little book had roused his indignation.

"Yes, but you keep them at the office where I don't get a look in! I should think you'd be proud of my business ability, instead of getting mad because I intend to keep books."

"Yes, your business sense is very great. I should be proud."

"Going to give me some money?"
"No—I haven't it to give."

"Then get it! Helen was now becoming angry. 'I told you Mrs. Langdon had to be paid. If you don't get it for me, I'll have to borrow it.'"

"We've so many rich friends who are anxious to lend money," sarcastically.
"Perhaps you haven't many friends, but I have!" she took on a wheedling tone. "Ask Howard Dunn to lend it to you. He will if you ask him. He did, once."

"Yes, and I vowed never to ask him again."

"You vowed to love and cherish me, and make me happy. Which vow would you rather keep?"

"Dam!" What a fool he was to think he ever could make her afraid of displeasing him.

"That's right! Get excited, get mad, then perhaps you'll get me some money. If you used a little of the vim and ginger you use on me on your business you'd be better off." She laughed and as he went out the door called after him:

"Bring some money or take the consequences!"

CYRUS W. POLLARD CALLED BY DEATH

Cyrus Milton Pollard, 73, died at his home, on South West Street Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, death coming after a lingering illness. Mr. Pollard had been suffering from a complication of diseases, since last September, and had been confined to his home for two or three weeks.

He was born, July 13, 1849, in Adams county, and had been a resident of this city for the past eight years. He was for many years employed as a carpenter here. His widow, Sarah Jane Pollard, and one brother, Jacob Pollard, of Xenia, survive.

Funeral services will be held at the late home, Saturday afternoon at two o'clock with burial at Woodland Cemetery.

Mrs. Myers Wants To Cut Expenses

Believing in true economy, Mrs. Myers yesterday told Mrs. Smith how she had tried to keep her household expenses down—but didn't seem able to save a penny.

"I'll tell you what I do," said Mrs. Smith. "For one thing, I save quite a bit of money on my soap bill. You've heard of that Rub-No-More Washing Powder that the grocer sells—Well, I find that it saves me at least half of my soap bill for it is a wonderful water softener and it doesn't leave that soapy film so objectionable with ordinary soap powders. Besides it dissolves and removes the grease instantly from my china, glassware, dishes, etc., and leaves them perfectly clean and sparkling."

"I'm going down to the grocers this morning and I'll sure get a package of that Rub-No-More Washing Powder," Mrs. Myers stated.

The H. & A.s' Present Financial Condition

The Company is today in the best financial condition in its history. Large inventory losses were taken last year as by all other manufacturing companies, but such losses had long been foreseen as inevitable and a surplus built up to provide for them. The last statement showed quick assets amounting to more than ten times the quick liabilities. Good banking practice only requires a ratio of two and one half to one instead of ten to one.

Despite the unusually adverse general business conditions of the past eighteen months, the Company has made very distinct headway. Many new outlets for Cordage have been obtained and the coming year should be one of the best in the Company's history. The proceeds of this present allotment of Preferred Stock will be used to provide for a larger business and to improve the Company's present manufacturing equipment.
